

The Responder

June 2003
Website Edition

Pulaski County Crisis Response Team Hosts NOVA Basic Crisis Response Training

Pulaski County Crisis Response Team was awarded an Office for Victims of Victim of Crime Act "Hope Grant" and an Arkansas Department of Health grant for NOVA Basic Crisis Response Training. More than 70 participants attended the training that was held at the Little Rock Police Department Training Academy. NOVA Trainers were Cheryl Guidry Tyiska, Director of Victim Services and Ginger Bankston Bailey, Executive Director, AR-CRT.

Pulaski County Crisis Response Team will host an NOVA Advanced Crisis Response Training in September 2003.

