

The Responder

October 2003
Website Edition

Fall Training Held at Arkansas State Police Headquarters

The Arkansas Crisis Response Team provided Continuing Education Training to team members on October 23rd. Major Wayne Eddy, Arkansas State Police, hosted the training at State Police Headquarters.

AR-CRT officers Max Snowden, Chair, and Andy Altom, Vice Chair, led the training on “How to Be a Team Leader.” Other presenters and topics included AR-CRT Board Member and Little Rock Police Department Sergeant, Terry Hastings—“How to Deal with the Media” and Assistant Director, Criminal Justice Institute, Tom Canady— Weapons of Mass Destruction. Ginger Bankston Bailey, AR-CRT Executive Director, discussed certified state teams and individual responders.

This training created valuable networking opportunities.

Max Snowden, AR-CRT Chair

*Major Wayne Eddy
AR-CRT Responder
and Host*

Sgt. Terry Hastings AR-CRT PIO

Tommy Canady with the group

*Andy Altom, Vice Chair
on front row*

